

ALIÁS tinto 2017

the... "Elegance of Outrora"

This wine was born of the centenarian Baga vines that we found in Bairrada. It is a limited production of a specific parcel of our vineyard in the Valley of Cadoiços. In this clay area the old vines have an imposing size and the grapes hold a unique freshness. We decided to make a different wine of this micro-terroir. A fresher, less matured wine, thinking about the purity and elegance of the variety.

THE 2017 VINTAGE

The year was very dry and warm as well. The vines shortened the growing season, forcing us to harvest the grapes earlier than usual. The high thermal amplitudes of the area and the cool Bairradinas nights have allowed us to obtain a wine full of freshness and depth.

Winemakers: Nuno do Ó & João Soares

TASTING NOTES

Crystalline appearance and a fantastic open red ruby color. It reveals the aroma of the iodine and clay minerality of the variety and cherry notes as well as a fine vegetable and flowery freshness. In the mouth it has a unique freshness, with silky tannins, hints of fruit, salty and spicy notes and an Atlantic acidity that supports the wine through a very long after taste.

OTHER NOTES

This wine has a good bottle ageing potential.

Store bottles laying down in a cool place (15-17°C).

Drink at 17-18°C .
